

WELCOME HOME RICHARD...

RICHARD PARKS'

737

CHALLENGE

RAISING FUNDS IN AID OF:

Marie Curie
Cancer Care

This coming Tuesday is your chance to welcome home record setter Richard Parks as he arrives back in Wales following the completion of his world first 737 Challenge.

Come down to the Senedd in Cardiff to give Richard Parks one almighty cheer and meet and greet the man himself. It's time to celebrate a world first!

A week after he made history becoming the first man to climb the highest summit on each of the world's continents and stand on all 3 poles – The North Pole, The South Pole and the summit of Everest in the same calendar year, Richard will step back on Welsh soil after completing his challenge in 6 months, 11 days, 7 hours and 53 minutes.

BRING YOUR FRIENDS, WORKMATES, FAMILY AND JOIN THE NATION BY WELCOMING HOME RICHARD PARKS – SEE YOU THERE!

DATE:
TUESDAY 19 JULY

TIME:
4.00PM

LOCATION:
THE SENEDD, CARDIFF

Richard will meet and greet, sign autographs and have photographs taken with fans and followers in front of the Senedd before attending a special invitation only reception.
